FESTIVAL MONDIAL DE FOLKORE DE JAMBES-NAMUR

C/o Ann LEON (co-présidente & secrétaire chargée des relations publiques)
15, rue de Dave - 5100 Jambes (Belgique)

By E-mail: copresidentes@festifolkjambes.be or info@festifolkjambes.be

The selection process:

- The selection committee's mission is to look for dynamic professional and amateur ensembles of high artistic level and to offer our audience a variety of represented countries or regions.
- The selection committee identifies the country to be invited; examines the records and documentation from the received applications.
- Formal invitations are sent to the selected groups between January and March for the festival to come.
- Groups that have not received any news by the 1st of May can consider that they were not selected this time. There will be no notification by email. Nevertheless, they could introduce a new application next year.

The Selection Committee does not have to justify its decision to the group.

CONDITIONS OF PARTICIPATION

WORLD FOLKLORE FESTIVAL OF JAMBES-NAMUR (FMFJN)

The folk ensemble is committed to:

- Sign and adhere to the "group" contract signed with the Folklore Festival;
- Be composed of a minimum of twenty-eight people including twenty-four artists and of a maximum of thirty-five people of which thirty-one artists. The number of artists includes dancers, musicians, singers, costume designers and choreographers;
- Be accompanied by a group of musicians playing live and using traditional instruments in the country (no recorded music will be allowed except in exceptional cases of a non-transportable instrument, after having written a request to the festival and having received the approval response);
- Present dances issued from Popular Arts and Traditions of the own country of origin. Specify whether the group wants to use fire in his performances (e.g. torches, candles, fire-eaters, etc.). It may appear that the use of fire is not possible for legal or security reasons or insurance;
- Have sufficient experience to participate in an international renowned event and have a varied artistic notebook for a total of at least 70 minutes;
- Be possibly able to assume a folk dance training of 2 hours;
- Undertake, where appropriate, the steps to obtain the Schengen visa and pay the relative costs;
- Have travel insurance covering medical expenses and hospitalization;
- Pay the cost of international round-trip between the country of origin and arrival at Belgian airport;
- Bring along towels for accommodation;
- Pay attention: the folk ensemble coming with its own means of transport must bring a sleeping bag;
- Be present in Jambes one day before the opening of the festival or early in the morning of the 1st day of the festival;
- Assume the costs of any sightseeing outside Namur, and support the costs of extended stay outside activities planned by the World Folklore Festival of Jambes–Namur;
- Share the Organizing Committee two months before his arrival, exceptional conditions such as: not mixed male / female for housing, any dietary restrictions (intolerance, allergies ...);
- Exceptionally: mention the presence of members in the group under 16 years of age. Where appropriate, the age of the children should be clarified. If it is a children group, then the number, names and roles of accompanying adults will be transmitted;
- Inform the World Folklore Festival of any defection of the group at least 2 months before the organization of the Festival.

The Folklore Festival is committed to:

- Fit all participants in single and /or double and/or 4 bed bedrooms with sheets. We do not provide any pillows or towels. Guest folk groups reside in an educational institution boarding (not an hostel) combining a canteen, a rehearsal room, a basketball court and WI-FI access;
- Considering meals according to religious beliefs (specify it in the contract);

- Assume the cost of production shows;
- Observe the regulations and policies of CIOFF (International Council of Organizations of Folklore Festivals and Traditional Arts) and I.O.V. (International Organization of Traditional Arts);
- Send a program as an indication and subject to change to the group that will be selected. The final program will be sent to the group as soon as they arrive;
- Schedule a rehearsal with the "sound technicians" for musicians and singers as well as a dress rehearsal for the group during which they will use all the instruments that are used for the show and check the mix of instruments. (The technical details such as microphones, lighting will be defined);
- If possible, provide one or two guides for the selected group in the desired language.

Generalities of the World Folklore Festival (FMFJN)

- Each group has to adhere to this Regulation and Council Regulation concerning accommodation (a condition of entry and exit locations will be made). Each group will leave in a state of cleanliness all the Festival's sites he has attended: stages, performance sites, changing rooms, housing, etc.);
- It is imperative to observe the time schedules charged for the performances;
- The behaviour of each group should fit to the Festival's ethics. Some behaviours detrimental to the reputation and smooth functioning of the Festival will not be admitted (refusal to provide performances, theft, vandalism, verbal or physical abuse, etc.). The Organizing Committee reserves the right to remove any group from the Festival which would have committed any fault after a warning beforehand but without further ado and without compensatory measure;
- The Organizing Committee of the Festival is in no way responsible for any theft which may be committed in and around the infrastructure of the Festival, in cars and in other places;
- The groups are strongly advised to have insurance for their instruments, costumes, luggage, personal belongings, etc. The Festival is not responsible for their loss and for any damage that might occur to them;
- The groups will only have to receive notices from the Organising Committee and via its official tour leader or guides;
- In case of litigation, the only competent court will be that of Namur.
